

The New Jersey Do Not Call registry program should not be changed. Businesses should not be able to annoy private citizens with these unwanted infringements on their lives in their own homes.